Substantiated reports of three (3) such sales in any twelve (12) month period shall be prima facie evidence of grounds for revocation.

- (J) Allowing any person to serve alcoholic beverages without such person having first obtained a liquor work card as set forth in this Chapter.

- (K) Failure to comply with any condition or requirement of this Chapter.

Revocation of one liquor license of a licensee by the Liquor Board is an automatic revocation of any other license issued to the licensee by the Liquor Board unless the Board specifically decides otherwise. (Ord. 1980-C, 2-7-1980, eff. 3-1-1980)

6-4-12: REVOCATION PROCEDURE:

(A) The Liquor Board may, on its own motion or upon the sworn complaint in writing of any person, investigate the conduct of any licensee under this Chapter to determine whether grounds for revocation of a license exist. The Board may request the assistance of the licensee in such an investigation.

(B) After an investigation, if it appears that a ground for revocation exists, the Liquor Board shall issue and cause to be served on the licensee an order to show cause why his license should not be revoked. Said order shall contain:

1. A statement directing the licensee or licensee's representative to appear before the Liquor Board at a time and place set out therein which shall be not less than ten (10) days from the date of service of said order to show cause on the licensee.
2. A brief statement of the grounds for revocation.
3. A statement that the licensee shall have an opportunity to be heard, present witnesses and confront any witnesses against him.
4. A statement that the licensees should be prepared to present evidence to show cause why his license should not be revoked or suspended.

(C) Service on the licensee shall be made by personally delivering a copy of the order to show cause to one of the persons whose name is on the license or by mailing a copy of the order by registered mail with return receipt to the place of business of the licensee, which is specified in the license. Service by mail shall be deemed complete on the day of the mailing.

(D) The Liquor Board shall have the authority to issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses for a revocation hearing and shall, upon request by the licensee or his attorney, issue subpoenas to persons which the licensee wishes to have testify. The expense of issuance and service of subpoenas for the licensee's witnesses shall be borne by the licensee. The Board shall have no obligation to ensure that service of any subpoenas requested by the licensee has been effected.

(E) At the hearing on the order to show cause, the licensee and the complainant, if there is one, may be represented by attorneys, present testimony, and cross-examine witnesses. A majority of the Liquor Boardmembers must be present to conduct a hearing, and if the hearing is pursuant to a complaint, the complainant must also be present.

- (F) Unless otherwise specified by the Liquor Board, the Nevada Rules of Evidence will not be applied strictly and the Board may consider all relevant evidence. The Board may, after presentation of evidence, upon request of the licensee or upon its own motion, continue the hearing for a period of not more than ten (10) days where it appears to the majority of the Board that further evidence or investigation is required as a result of the testimony or evidence produced at the hearing.
- (G) Within ten (10) days after the final hearing, the Liquor Board shall render its decision and give notice thereof to the licensee. The Board may revoke or temporarily suspend a license. In absence of or in conjunction with the suspension, the Board may place a licensee on probation with or without conditions. A majority of those members present at the hearing must agree to render a decision.
- (H) Any person who has had his license revoked may reapply for a license after six (6) months after the revocation order, but a new license may only be issued by a unanimous decision of all members of the Board.
- (I) If after an investigation as set forth in subsection (A) of this Section, it appears to the Board that no grounds for revocation exist, it shall within ten (10) days issue to the licensee an investigative report which shall contain any suggestions or recommendations which the Board determines necessary or appropriate to protect the public health, welfare or safety. (Ord. 1980-C, 2-7-1980, eff. 3-1-1980)

6-4-13: EXCEPTION TO REVOCATION PROCEDURE:

If, upon investigating grounds for revocation of a license, the Liquor Board is unanimously agreed that public health, safety or morals will be endangered by the continued existence of the license, it may without notice suspend the license at once and direct the Sheriff to close the licensee's liquor business. However, an order to show cause, as set out in Section 6-4-12 of this Chapter, shall also be served on the licensee at once, and the procedure thereafter shall be in accordance with the provisions of Section 6-4-12 of this Chapter.
